Oronoko planners postpone hearings

BERRIEN SPRINGS — The January meeting of the Oronoko Township Planning Commission has been rescheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 29, at the Township Hall, the township announced. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting had been set for Tuesday but was postponed because of foul weather.

The agenda includes a public hearing on Dr. Phil Hecht's request to amend his special use permit for gravel mining. There is a hearing on the township's proposed five-year parks and recreation plan.
