

IN BRIEF

MCV begins campaign tonight at Mickey's

ST. JOSEPH — Michigan City Vandals perform at 9 p.m. tonight at Mickey's Pub, 1007 Main St., to raise money and awareness for its new album's crowd-funding campaign on Indiegogo.

The St. Joseph/Benton Harbor-based rock band, which features singer/ bass guitarist Julee Laurent-Clancy, drummer Matt Clancy and guitarist Collin Mattiford, will play two sets, with the second set featuring songs off the new album.

Michigan City Vandals formed in 2006 and have previously released 2008's "Our Own Little Slice of Hell," the 2010 EP "Revolve," and 2012's "Back to Life." The band is coming off last October's coveted spot in the CBGB Festival in New York City.

Admission is $5, and free for those who pre-order the album.
