

IN BRIEF

Grace Wall of Honor induction set

Grace Christian's Athletic Wall of Honor induction will be held at halftime on Monday of the varsity girls basketball game with Eau Claire.

Inductees are Tim Smith, Megan McCanse and Jody Galens.

ML students advance to powerlifting finals

The Michigan Lutheran girls powerlifting team finished third in the West Regionals recently, and will compete in the state championship March 7.

Moving on are juniors Courtney Burnett, Sara Cramer and Miranda Tolsma; sophomores Samantha Rock, Anna Pelky and Grace Barner; eighth-grader Mackenzie Zabel and seventh-grader Sara Moncrieff.

LMC men's hoops falls to Lansing

The Lake Michigan College men's basketball team could not hold on Friday night, dropping a close 75-72 decision to Lansing Community College.

The Red Hawks led by as many as 12 points in the second half.

Ken Coates led LMC (7-7 MCCA West, 15-12) with a game-high 27 points. T.J. Scott and Alec Brown added 12 points apiece.

Tracy Edmond led Lansing (8-4, 18-7) with 16 points and 13 assists.

Langer on top again in ACE Group Classic

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — Defending champion Bernhard Langer shot an 8-under 64 on Friday to take a one-stroke lead after the first round of the ACE Group Classic.

Langer birdied three of his first holes in his bogey-free round on TwinEagles' Talon Course.

The 56-year-old German star won the 2011 tournament and finished second behind Kenny Perry in 2012.

Langer won the season-opening event in Hawaii last month for his 19th Champions Tour title.

Bob Tway was second. He birdied his last three holes, making a 60-foot putt on No. 8.

Olin Browne opened with a 66, and Duffy Waldorf and Kirk Triplett shot 67. Waldorf is coming off a playoff loss to Michael Allen on Sunday in Boca Raton in the Allianz Championship.

Bae goes bogey-free for lead at Riviera

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bae Sang-moon is off to another great start at the Northern Trust Open. The next step is a better finish.

Bae played bogey-free on another gorgeous day at Riviera for a 5-under 66, giving him a one-shot lead over Aaron Baddeley and Robert Garrigus when the second round was suspended by darkness.

Baddeley, who won at Riviera three years ago, birdied his last four holes for a 65. Garrigus had a 67.

Drummond shines in Rising Stars Challenge

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Andre Drummond had 30 points and a Rising Stars Challenge-record 25 rebounds, leading Team Hill to a 142-136 victory over Team Webber on Friday night.

Besides an impressive tally of dunks and rebounds, Drummond even managed to make his free throws while winning MVP honors. The Detroit forward went 6 for 8, including a pair with 29 seconds left after chasing down Bradley Beal's missed free throw to give his team a five-point lead.
