

IN BRIEF

Sonya White performs at The Acorn Theater

THREE OAKS — Comedian Sonya White headlines “A Comedy Cruise Ship Show” at 8 p.m. Friday at The Acorn Theater, 107 Generations Drive.

White, who has been featured on HBO, Comedy Central, “Last Comic Standing” and “Star Search,” will be joined by fellow performers Jamie Cruz and Nola J. as they turn the theater into the U.S.S. Acorn cruising the Mediterranean. Guests are encouraged to come in resort attire, and the bar will serve pina colodas, Bahama mamas, rum runners and more.

Tickets are $20-$32.

For more information, call 756-3879 or visit www.acorntheater.com.

Haris headlines annual Coming Home concert

BENTON HARBOR — Niki Haris will headline the 16th Annual Coming Home Coming Together concert Sunday, June 22, in Dwight P. Mitchell City Center Park, Main and Pipestone. Doors open at 5 p.m., with entertainment starting at 6:15 p.m.

A Benton Harbor native, Haris is known for her jazz singing, but also performs in the inspirational, dance and funk genres. Backing Haris is the Tim Fitzgerald Quartet.

Special guest performer is Bruce Katz, a member of the Gregg Allman Band who also plays regularly with John Hammond, Delbert McClinton and others.

Opening this year's show will be the Lake Michigan College Jazz Band and the Benton Harbor Boys & Girls Club drum line.

Attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs, blankets and other comfortable seating. Tables that seat 10 can be purchased for $250.

To reserve a table, email jbalkin@comcast.net or call 757-1586.