United Federal Credit Union VP Jeff Curry Selected to Lead LMC Foundation

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. – Vice President of Operations Jeff Curry has been elected as president of The Lake Michigan College Foundation. The Foundation’s Board of Directors chose Curry who will serve a one-year term effective July 1, 2014. Curry has served as a Foundation board member for five years and is currently the vice president.

“I am honored by the vote of confidence from my fellow board members,” Curry said. “And I am excited to serve in a position where I can lead the Board’s objectives of developing a skilled workforce that meets the needs of local employers and, as a result, leads to student success and economic vitality throughout our region.”

Jeff has long been an active volunteer in Southwest Michigan. His involvement includes serving on the boards of directors of the Niles Community Schools, FUN Financial Literacy Institute, Michigan Gateway Foundation, and Kinexus where he is chairman of the Bridge Academy Committee. Jeff is the education chair of Michigan’s Great Southwest Strategic Leadership Council and a member of the Buchanan Lions Club.
