The Chuck Jägers return to The Livery

The Chuck Jägers, the local band featuring guitarists Mikey Gardner, Chris Story and Mike Timm, bass player Brandon Dinges and drummer Marc Churchill, returns for a 9 p.m. Saturday concert at The Livery, 190 Fifth St., Benton Harbor.

The self-described "local supergroup," fueled by a mutual affection for the alt-country/Southern rock outfit Drive-By Truckers, which inspired their own three-guitar setup, met as Mug Club members at The Livery, playing their first official band gig on Oct. 31, 2009. Since then, they have become staples at The Livery's annual Halloween bash, NTAA's Artoberfest and more.

While The Chuck Jägers play a mix of genres from Grateful Dead's "New Speedway Boogie" to The Byrds' "My Back Pages" as well as a handful of originals, they classify their own musical stylings as "Loud."

Admission is free. For more info, call 925-8760 or visit www.liverybrew.com.
